THE BALDWIN COMPANY

Cincinnati, January 27th, 1925.

ANNUAL REPORT TO STOCKHOLDERS

To the Stockholders of

The Baldwin Company:

The total volume of business done by the Company and its subsidiary Companies for the year 1924, exclusive of small goods, amounted to $13,459,779.76, which is the largest volume in the history of the business.

The profits, after deducting taxes and interest, amounted to $866,525.01, out of which $153,848.80 has been set aside and added to Reserves.

Our plants have been working continuously during the entire year, producing a larger number of instruments than in any similar period.

The business and assets of the Company continue in good order. All bills have been paid promptly and discounted.

The Company now has 644 Preferred and 134 Common; a total of 778 Stockholders.

Regular dividends have been declared on both the Preferred and Common Stocks and in addition a Stock Dividend of 4%, payable December 15th, 1924, to holders of Common Stock of record at noon, November 12th, 1924.

The Seven and Eight Percent Debenture Preferred Stocks of the Company, amounting to $2,220,300.00, have been retired, and there has been issued in connection with this refunding, $2,000,000.00 of 6% Cumulative Preferred Stock Authorized 1924.

Prospects seem favorable at this time for continued good business.

Respectfully submitted,

G. W. ARMSTRONG, JR.,

President.
